GEM THEATER SOLD TO MR. AND MRS. HARRY C. MILLS, OF SANDUSKY, O.

As stated in yesterday's Ledger, Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Mills, of Sandusky, O., have purchased the beautiful Gem theater, one of Maysville's most successful movie houses, formerly owned by Sherman Arn and Mr. Joseph Simmons, two of Maysville's prominent business men.

About three years ago these gentlemen gave Maysville its first modern and up-to-date moving picture show, and one that is admitted to be among the finest in Old Kentucky. They started out with one object in view, to show nothing but the best the film market had to offer, regardless of the cost, and these wide-awake men on several occasions showed big productions long before they were seen in Cincinnati.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills are experienced in the moving picture business, having operated a chain of theaters in northern Ohio for the past ten years. Recently while touring Kentucky they stopped in Maysville and were so impressed with Maysville and the people they had the pleasure of meeting that they at once expressed a desire to make this their home. Mr. Mills and his wife called on the owners of the Gem and began negotiations for the play house, and owing to the fact that the former owners of the place are extensively engaged in other business, Mr. Mills' proposition was considered and in a short time the Gem had changed hands.

In the retirement from the movie field of Messrs. Arn and Simmons, the public loses two very prominent exhibitors, but fortunately the Gem has fallen into capable hands and will be continued on the same high plane of excellence. Mrs. Mills, being an accomplished musician, will furnish the music in the future and it is safe to say that the Gem music will be good.

Mr. and Mrs. Mills come well recommended and will give the Gem the same careful attention that has made them successful in the moving picture business. They will move their headquarters to Maysville and make this their home and continue to make the Gem a leader in the picture business.

The Ledger extends a hearty welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Mills and trusts that their residence here will prove a source of pleasure as well as profit.

KENTUCKY CONFERENCE

METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH CONVENES AT COVINGTON ON WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1ST—MAYSVILLE PASTORS AND LAYMEN TO ATTEND.

Bishop F. D. Leete, of Atlanta, Ga., will preside over the sessions of the eighty-ninth Kentucky annual conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, which begins September 1 at the Union M. E. church, Covington. The Rev. George W. Bunton, who has acted as secretary of the conference on numerous occasions, will likely be called on to perform a similar service. He is preparing to take charge of the Grace church in Dayton, O., September 5. This will be the eleventh time that the conference has met in the Union church. The following bishops have presided over these sessions: E. S. James, 1853; T. A. Morris, 1858-1863; D. W. Clark, 1866; Levi Scott, 1872; S. M. Merrill, 1874; Jesse T. Peck, 1878; W. L. Harris, 1885; C. D. Foss, 1895; I. W. Joyce, 1903; F. D. Leete, 1915.

During the eighty-nine years of the history of the Kentucky conference there have been but twenty-two secretaries; some of these secretaries became prominent in the councils of the church, one of them served as bishop for a quarter of a century, while others became college presidents, theologians and church leaders. The conference visitors will be entertained in the homes of the Methodists in Covington and surrounding towns.

An item of unusual importance will be the election of delegates to the quadrennial conference of the World Methodists, which convenes in Saratoga Springs, N. Y., May next year. This conference is entitled to two delegates from the ministry. The laymen of the various churches will meet on Friday, September 3, and elect two laymen as delegates to the same general conference.

The forenoons of each day of the conference will be given over to conference business, while the afternoons and evenings will be devoted to anniversary services of the various boards of the church.

Three ministers have died during the past year—Rev. Thomas Hanford, D. D.; Rev. Bird Hughes and Rev. Joshua Taylor. The memorial services for these clergymen will be held on the opening day of conference at 11 o'clock. Bishop Leete, the presiding officer, will deliver a thirty-minute address each morning, beginning at 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. J. M. Lital, pastor of the Third Street M. E. church, Rev. A. F. Felts, of the Forest Avenue M. E. church, Messrs. J. H. Richardson, I. M. Lane, Walter Nauman, Bruce Snapp and others will represent the two Maysville churches.

Dr. Kahn, the optometrist and optician, will be in his office in the O'Keefe Building today.

TAKE FINAL CONTEST

FROM SENATORS BY SCORE OF 4 TO 1—BROWN ALLOWS 7 SCATTERED HITS AND ONE RUN.

The fans of Maysville had the satisfaction of seeing the Colonels trim the Charleston Senators in the last game of the season on the local lot. The Colonels turned the trick by the score of 4 to 1. The pitching of Brown, of the locals, featured, while Tipton and DeBerry were the whole show at the bat. Corbin was the slugger for the visitors. The score:

PROMINENT HORSEMAN DEAD

The citizens of Maysville and vicinity were rudely shocked Monday evening about 6 o'clock when it became known that Mr. Charles E. Biggers, a prominent horseman, of this city, had dropped dead at his home on West Second street. Mr. Biggers had for a few days been ill as the result of eating some ham at the Ewing Fair a few weeks ago, where he showed some horses.

Monday afternoon about 5 o'clock he went uptown to get shaved and returned at a few minutes after 6 o'clock. He went to his room at once and while talking to his wife he reeled and fell over. Dr. A. O. Taylor, the family physician, was called, but when he arrived the stricken man was beyond aid of the medical profession.

Mr. Biggers is survived by his wife and one daughter, Miss Rita. His death marks the passing of another prominent figure from the Kentucky turf. He was one of the best known exhibitors of horses in the state and will be severely missed by a host of friends.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

GAVE MAYSVILLE TEAM BANQUET.

Mr. Charles Rohmiller, the popular proprietor of the Manhattan Restaurant, entertained the members of the Maysville Baseball Club with a six-course dinner at the Whitehall Hotel Monday night. Those who attended were Manager J. Devore, Harry Devore, Stanley Tinnin, James Kelly, Frank Winchell, Frank Emmer, Clement Henderson, O. Tipton, Hermann DeBerry, Winslow French, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Brown, Howard McGraynor and others. Mr. Rohmiller has ever been known as a royal host and Monday evening's jollification was in keeping with his reputation.

BENEFIT DANCE AT BEECHWOOD PARK.

In order to raise funds for the maintenance of the penny lunch, the Parent-Teacher Association of the First District will give a dance at Beechwood Park Monday evening, September 6, from 9 to 1. Music furnished by the Maysville Saxophone Trio. Admission 50 cents.

The penny lunch was inaugurated in the First District school last spring and proved a great success. An earnest appeal is made to the public at large to assist in the continuance of this much-needed cause.

A GREAT REDUCTION

In going over our stock we find that we are OVERLOADED, and have decided to REDUCE STOCK, and it goes at cost. This space will not permit us to list it all. One great bargain is 100,000 feet of an EXCELLENT GRADE OF OAK SILING. This goes at $2 PER HUNDRED. All other yard stock greatly reduced.

Don't miss this opportunity to get what you want in lumber and building material at the lowest prices ever known in Maysville. Terms at this reduced price are CASH.

GOLD WINNERS

GREAT COMBINED PUBLIC LEDGER-DAILY BULLETIN CONTEST

The $100 in gold which was offered to the six candidates for special effort is awarded to the following candidates, and it was won by very small margins and in some instances the small matter of one subscription for a short time decided between the gold winners and the non-gold winners. This only goes to prove that the race for the big prizes is going to be a close one and present indications point to the fact that narrow margins of victory for the automobile can be expected. The 50,000 offer which is good this week affords every candidate an equal chance to win and the votes secured now on the home-stretch days will play an important factor in determining the automobile winners. The gold winners in the city are as follows:

$25 in Gold—Mrs. J. M. Harbeson.
$15 in Gold—Miss Elizabeth Cook.
$10 in Gold—Miss Maude L. Knight.

The gold to the country candidates is as follows:
$25 in Gold—Miss Pattle Hunter, Washington.
$15 in Gold—Miss Jane Sullivan, Route 4.
$10 in Gold—Mrs. C. A. Goodman, Wendon.

A SURE TIP HOW TO WIN THE AUTOMOBILE.

MR. LOUIS FREUND DEAD.

Relatives in this city received word Monday morning announcing the death of Mr. Louis Freund, of Cincinnati, well known in this city. The cause of his death is somewhat a mystery as he was found in an unconscious condition with his head cut and badly beaten. His remains will arrive here tonight over the C. & O., and will be taken to the home of his sister, Mrs. George Dinger, on East Second street. The funeral will be held Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock from St. Patrick's church.

SOURCES OF THE RAIL-SHIPED TOMATO CROP.

Washington, D. C., August 30.—Beginning early in the year and continuing until late in the fall, tomatoes are shipped commercially from over half of the states of the Union. There is probably no other perishable vegetable commonly grown out-of-doors in the United which appears on the market through a longer season than does the tomato.

Florida, of course, with its location and climate, stands as the premier tomato state and starts the tomato movement each year in January. The northern states, such as New York and Ohio, finish out the season in October, and by the time the movement is over, approximately 12,000 cars are moved for table consumption, according to a recent survey made by the Department of Agriculture and published in Bulletin No. 290, "Rail Shipments and Distribution of Fresh Tomatoes in 1914."

Florida ships about half the tomatoes moved (6,000 cars), with Mississippi, New Jersey and Texas handling approximately 1,500 cars apiece. The other states grow tomatoes in smaller quantities, but in certain districts, such as West Tennessee, the crop is of great local importance.

The bulletin presents figures showing that a total of twelve thousand cars were moved, but this by no means represents the entire tomato crop, since an effort was made to exclude those going to canneries and catnip factories. When demand for tomatoes in the market is heavy, it is more profitable to ship the tomatoes which were originally intended for the canneries, but if the market is weak, larger quantities are offered for canning.

There are certain localities where it is more profitable to raise tomatoes for canning than for table use. New York, Delaware and Ohio put the bulk of their production into the can, so that the total used for this purpose is more than that shipped for table use.

Most of the table tomatoes are picked when green and wrapped in paper to ripen on the way to market in ventilated cars. Texas for a number of years has preferred to send its crop to market picked when ripe and shipped in lead cars. Near many cities large quantities of tomatoes are shipped when fully ripe by electric lines, truck and other conveyances.

The different tomato growing localities endeavor to raise their crop so as not to be in competition with each other, and every effort is made to rush the crop to market before the local tomatoes come in. The last of the southern crop is frequently wasted because it can not sell in competition with northern tomatoes.

The bulletin published by the Department of Agriculture contains charts showing the shipping periods of the various states, a map with the tomato-producing sections indicated and a list of the railroad stations shipping tomatoes, with the amount shipped from each.

PLANS FOR BIG NAVY

Washington, August 29.—The General Naval Board, of which Admiral Dewey is chairman, will recommend, it is understood, the following program of construction:

At least four battleships of the super-dreadnaught type.

Two battle cruisers, or two heavily armed scout cruisers.

One fuel ship.

Sixteen torpedo boat destroyers.

Sixty to seventy submarines.

The special advisory board will, it is understood, endorse such a program. Formal announcement awaits the return of Secretary Daniels to Washington.

RUSSIA GETS WORD.

Amsterdam, August 30.—Japan's decision to assist Russia by increasing her output of war munitions has been communicated officially to Petrograd. A message from Petrograd to the Telegram says that Japan has notified Russia she is preparing to mobilize her entire industrial resources for this purpose.

INNOCENT ONES SUFFER IN RAIDS BY ZEPPELINS, SAYS BALFOUR.

London, August 30.—"No soldier or sailor has been killed or even wounded, and only on one occasion has damage been inflicted which could, by any stretch of language, be described as of the smallest military importance," says Arthur J. Balfour, First Lord of the Admiralty, of the Zeppelin raids on England in a letter to a correspondent who had complained that the British accounts of these raids were meager, while the German reports on the same events "are quite rich in lurid details."

"The reason," says Mr. Balfour in his letter, "is quite simple. Zeppelin attack under cover of night, and by preference on moonless nights. In such conditions landmarks are elusive, navigation difficult and errors inevitable and sometimes of surprising magnitude. The Germans constantly assert, and may sometimes believe, that they dropped bombs on places which in fact they never approached."

"Why make their future voyages easier by telling them where they blundered in the past? Let us learn what we can from the enemy, but let us teach him only what we must."

"Nobody will, I think, be disposed to doubt that this reticence is judicious. But the question may still be asked whether it is used not merely to embarrass the Germans but unduly to reassure the British."

"How ought we to rate the Zeppelins among the weapons of attack and what have they done and what can they do? To this last question I do not offer a reply. I can not prophesy about the future of a method of warfare which still is in its infancy. I can, however, say something of its results in the past."

"That it has caused much suffering to many innocent people, unhappily is certain, but even this result, with all its tragedy, has been modified out of all proportion by ill-informed rumor."

"I am assured by the home office that, during the last twelve months seventy-one civilian adults and eighteen children have been killed and that 159 civilian adults and thirty-one children have been injured. Judged by numbers, this cumulative result of many successive crimes does not equal the single effort of a submarine which to the unconcerned pride of Germany and the horror of all the world, sent 1,198 innocent civilians to the bottom in the Lusitania."

"Yet it is bad enough, and we may well ask what military advantage has been gained at the cost of so much blood."

PRESIDENT'S REFUSAL TO RECOGNIZE CARRANZA SAID TO HAVE CAUSED TROUBLE WITH HOUSE

New York, August 30.—A Washington dispatch to the Tribune says:

A break between President Wilson and Col. E. M. House, of Texas, who has probably exercised a more potent influence in shaping the policies and appointments of the Wilson administration than all the other advisers of the President put together, is believed by friends of both here to have taken place as the result of the President's refusal to recognize Carranza.

Friends of Carranza and Americans who believe that the best solution of the Mexican problem would come through his recognition have been working on Colonel House for many months.

His conversion to the belief that Carranza should be recognized, it is believed, took place shortly after his return from Europe last June.

BULGARIA DALKS.

Berlin, August 30.—The Overseas News Agency says that Bulgaria, previously reported to have signed a treaty with Turkey, has postponed ratification of the agreement on account of a sharp warning from the entente allies.

"According to Sofia reports," the news agency says, "Bulgaria has postponed for some days the signing of the treaty with Turkey, the quadruple entente having notified her that such action at the present time would be regarded as a willfully unfriendly act."

"Nevertheless, the two powers are in complete agreement."

"IRRESPONSIBLE!"

Berlin, August 30.—Theodore Roosevelt's derogatory remarks concerning German-Americans are extensively reprinted in German newspapers. Roosevelt and Gabriele d'Annunzio are characterized as "irresponsible big talkers."

KIEL.

Washington, D. C., August 30.—"Built up around the deep pocket of the Kieler Fohrde, a narrow arm of the Baltic Sea, that cuts its way back into the province of Holstein, the old city of Kiel lies well-shielded from all hostile attack and centrally placed for the use of the fleet, either upon the open ocean or upon the inland sea," begins a bulletin just prepared by the National Geographic Society. "This ancient port city is headquarters for German sea strength, the first naval station of the empire, the point from which orders have been issued directing the unequal duel between the ships of the Kaiser and the fleets of Britain."

"The great war-airbor of Kiel is one of the finest and most powerfully protected harbors in the world. The sea-arm, whose base is enclosed by the port, has a narrow entrance and a long, irregular surface. The entrance and the strategic points along the bank are heavily fortified. Fort Falkenstein and Fort Stosch guard the narrow about three and a half miles above the town. Flanking the northern termination of the new Kiel suburbs, the Kaiser Wilhelm canal, a triumph of patience and engineering, cuts its way into the sheltered bay. By means of this canal, Kiel is in close communication with the North Sea, and units of the Kaiser's navy can be transferred rapidly and safely from the war theater to the open ocean to that of the Baltic."

"The Kaiser Wilhelm canal or the Baltic ship canal is the product of an idea which ripened through centuries. Projects for connecting the Baltic and North Seas by a water route through the northern peninsula which should avoid the dangerous passage around Jutland were considered spasmodically from 1300 on, but it remained to military necessities of a great empire to bring about the realization of this advantageous waterway for trade. Any number of haphazard beginnings of the projected way were made before the construction of the present canal was undertaken by the first German emperor, Kaiser Wilhelm I laid the foundation stone for the canal in 1887, and the costly avenue was formally declared open by the present emperor in 1895. The original canal has been extensively improved."

"The canal crosses the peninsula, from Holtenau just beyond the northern suburbs of Kiel to Brunsbüttel at the mouth of the Elbe, at sea level, the locks at either end merely serving to neutralize the tides. It is sixty miles long, with a depth of more than thirty feet and a width sufficient to pass the largest men-of-war. A steamer takes between eight and nine hours to pass through the canal, thus bringing the advance German naval base at Heligoland within easy reach of the Kiel headquarters. The whole way at night is lighted with electricity. The first cost of the Baltic ship canal was $39,000,000. Other millions have been expended in its improvement. Regular steamer excursion service was maintained here before the war, but the voyage offered little of interest besides steep banks here and there and a few scenic spots."

"Great Imperial docks, arsenals and navy yards are located at Kiel, as are also admiralty headquarters and the Imperial naval academy. Foreigners were not admitted to the docks and yards. Many thousands of visitors regularly attended Kieler-Woche (Kiel Week), the great German regatta held each year during the latter part of June. This regatta was an event of first importance in the world of international sport, and yachts from all nations interested in water sports were annually entered in its famous races. The yacht Hohenzollern, housing the emperor and the Imperial family, billeted year, the central point of the gay, rich, cosmopolitan throng of sportsmen."

"Kiel is one of the oldest towns in Holstein. The older parts of the town are badly built, having twisted, narrow, indifferently paved streets and being flanked by gnarled, time-tortured buildings. The new town, however, is filled with handsome structures and is well planned. The city has grown in every way, industrially, commercially, socially, artistically, since becoming naval headquarters for the empire and of the greatest sport event upon the German sport calendar."

NEW ATTACK BY LAND AND SEA RESULTS IN HEAVY FIGHTING AT DARDANELLES.

Constantinople, August 30.—A new attack by land and sea on the Turkish positions at the Dardanelles has resulted in heavy fighting. The Turkish war office announced that several onslaughts had been repulsed with heavy losses to the allies.

It also was said that a cruiser and a transport of the allies had been hit repeatedly by the Turkish guns. The statement follows:

"On the Dardanelles front on August 27 in the region of Anafarta, the enemy made a land and sea attack after a preparatory bombardment with artillery on our right wing near Lirach Tepe, and our center south near Asmarkdere. These attacks were entirely unsuccessful."

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free. Sold by Druggists. Price 75c per bottle. HOG WEIGHED 690 POUNDS.

(St. Louis Post-Dispatch.) A hog weighing 690 pounds was received and sold in East St. Louis this morning.

The hog was raised by Elmer Allen, of Brighton, Ill. It was bought by Nelson Morris & Company for $43.13, the bottom price of $6.25 a hundred being paid. There is not much demand for heavy hogs now.

The hog was 5½ feet long, 3 feet high and was three years old. It was the largest hog received in the market this year and one of the largest ever received.

SOLDIERS SENT OUT.

San Antonio, Texas, August 30.—Three additional detachments of the United States soldiers were ordered to isolated sections of the border where Mexican bandits have been raiding ranches and looting small country stores.

HELPLESS AS BABY

Down in Mind Unable to Work, and What Helped Her.

Summit Point, W. Va.—Mrs. Anna Belle Emey, of this place, says: "I suffered for 15 years with an awful pain in my right side, caused from womanly trouble, and doctors lost for it, but without success. I suffered so very much, that I became down in mind, and as helpless as a baby. I was in the worst kind of shape. Was unable to do any work."

I began taking Cardui, the woman's tonic, and got relief from the very first dose. By the time I had taken 12 bottles, my health was completely restored. I am now 45 years old, but feel as good as I did when only 16.

Cardui certainly saved me from losing my mind, and I feel it my duty to speak in its favor. I wish I had some power over poor, suffering women, and could make them know the good it would do them."

If you suffer from any of the ailments peculiar to women, it will certainly be worth your while to give Cardui a trial. It has been helping weak women for more than 50 years, and will help you, too.

Try Cardui. Your druggist sells it.

VILLA AND ZAPATA SPLIT

El Paso, Texas, August 30.—Francisco Villa and Emiliano Zapata have split, and each is leading a separate party, according to a letter received here from Lazaro Chazaro, Villa's latest presidential possibility.

Chazaro is one his way north to join Villa and says he was given twenty-four hours to leave Zapatista territory. Zapata has renounced all connection with the Villa party and declares he will war against the northern leader to the bitter end.

General Victoriano Huerta has sent his family away from the border because of fear of an anti-Mexican outbreak.

ZAPATA ACTS FAVORABLY.

Mexico City, August 30.—General Emiliano Zapata has made a favorable reply to the note recently sent by the Pan-American conference to all Mexican leaders, offering to aid in arranging a convention to be held in neutralized Mexican territory for the purpose of creating a provisional government to provide for general elections. J. W. Russell and Frank Azzis, messengers sent with the note to General Zapata, arrived here carrying his answer and also favorable replies from Generals Manuel Palafox, Francisco Chazaro, Pacheco, Lazo and others.

AIR RAID MADE BY ALLIES ON GERMAN LINES AT HIXSCHUOTTE

Amsterdam, August 30.—A delayed dispatch from the Belgian frontier says that the allies have successfully accomplished an air raid on the German lines at Hixschuotte.

The allied aviators dropped more than 100 bombs, killing and wounding many soldiers in the German trenches.

The school of the village of Sendelen was converted into a hospital by the Germans on account of the large numbers of wounded in the raid.

LABOR'S SHARE IN RAILROADING

Vice President Marshall could not have been talking about railroading when he declared that labor receives only 20 per cent of the product of its toll. W. A. Worthington, vice president and assistant to the chairman of the Southern Pacific, shows in an analysis of the division of railroad income between capital and labor that in 1904 labor receives 58.73 per cent of the total railway income divisible between capital and labor, whereas, in 1914, ten years later, it received 66.04 per cent. Capital in 1904 received 41.27 per cent, while in 1914 it received 33.96 per cent. While capital's share of the income relatively decreased during this period and labor's was increasing, capital's investment in railways increased 57.13 per cent, or from $11,511,537,131 to $16,936,697,840, while the number of employees increased 30.81 per cent, or from 1,296,121 to 1,695,483.

The gross operating revenue of the railways of the United States in 1914 was $3,047,019,908. From this Mr. Worthington deducts all operating expenses except wages, $826,890,687, and taxes $140,531,575, which leaves $2,079,597,646 available for division between labor and capital. Of this total $1,373,422,472 or 66.04 per cent, was expended for wages to labor and the balance $706,175,174, or 33.96 per cent, was left for capital available for interest on bonds and other debt, dividends, improvements to property, depreciation, miscellaneous expenses and surplus. In 1904 out of a total operating revenue of $1,975,174,091 the amount divisible between labor and capital was $1,392,180,194 of which 58.73 per cent was paid for wages and 41.27 per cent was reserved for capital.

The return to capital in 1914 represented 4.17 per cent on the railway investment, whereas in 1904 this return was 4.99 per cent. Comparing 1914 with 1904, there was an increase of $687,417,352 in railway income available for paying labor and for capital purposes. Of this amount $555,823,662 or 80.86 per cent was paid to labor and $131,593,690 or 19.14 per cent of the total remained for capital purposes. This shows that of increment in divisible net income during the ten years, labor received four-fifths and capital one-fifth. As compared with the latter in road and equipment increased $5,425,160,709, the increment available for capital purposes being 2.43 per cent upon the increased investment.

DEFENSE TO BE MAIN ISSUE.

Washington, August 30.—The administration's full legislative program for the coming session of Congress, exclusive of comparatively minor measures, will be as follows, according to authoritative information obtained:

National defense, meaning strengthening of both the army and the navy and the coast defenses of the country. Revenue legislation, including the re-enactment of the war revenues bill, which produces about $50,000,000 annually.

The conservation bills, for which the west is clamoring. Secretary Lane is anxious to have these measures, most of which went through one House last session, approved by both Houses at this session.

Rural credits legislation, which was sidetracked in the closing days of the Sixty-third Congress.

The paring down of ordinary appropriations and the reduction of "pork barrel" bills to the minimum, in view of the demands elsewhere.

May Revive Ship Bill.

In addition to these general matters the Senate will begin early consideration of the cloture rule and the revival of the shipping bill is expected. The Senate also has pending the treaties with Nicaragua and Colombia. With such an extensive program it is believed that Congress will remain in session until the Presidential campaigns are on next summer.

National defense and revenue legislation, the former making the latter imperative, will be the head liners. This is admitted by Senator Simmons, administration spokesman in the Senate and the chairman of the Finance Committee, and Representative Kitchen, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee and floor leader in the House.

Senator Simmons is authority for the statement that if necessary there will be an issue of bonds or short-term notes to insure adequate national defense. He says such an issue would not be radical in view of the conditions existing today and the nationwide demand for preparedness.

SEA CAPTAIN WATCHES TORPEDO AS IT SPEEDS TOWARD VICTIM.

New York, August 30.—The thrilling story of the torpedoing of the Norwegian steamer Trondhjemsfjord was told by Captain Birkeland, of the Norwegian steamer Glance, which arrived from Asalborg, Norway.

The Trondhjemsfjord left this port July 13 for Bergen and Christiansand in command of Captain Bang and a crew of thirty-five officers and men. She was a vessel of 2,737 tons net.

"We left Asalborg July 28," said Captain Birkeland, "and two days later while in the North Sea we sighted two steamers. One of them, which turned out to be the Trondhjemsfjord, was hove to and the other was going ahead at full speed.

"A moment later I observed a German submarine. The submarine had signals set and I was able to make the signal out through my glass. It was an order to the crew of the Trondhjemsfjord to take to their boats and abandon their ship.

"The crew lowered boats on the opposite side to the submarine and then got into them. As soon as this was done I saw the submarine fire a torpedo. I was able to see its wake right up to the moment it struck the ship. There was a tremendous explosion and the Trondhjemsfjord settled very quickly and had sunk within a few minutes after being struck.

"The submarine then maneuvered around and came up alongside the boats and gave them a tow line. The commander of the submarine then heisted a signal, telling me to prepare to take the crew aboard.

"We hove to and the submarine towed the boats alongside. Captain Bang and his crew came aboard. With him came an officer and five men of the British navy who had been put aboard the Trondhjemsfjord a few hours earlier by a British auxiliary with orders to take the ship to Kirkwall, Scotland.

"After the crew had come aboard my ship the submarine disappeared. The other steamer managed to get away completely.

"Two days later we sighted the Swedish Olando, bound for Sundsvold, Sweden, and we transferred all the men from the Trondhjemsfjord to that vessel.

"Later in the day a British auxiliary sighted us and ordered us to stand by for a boarding party. After we had been examined the British officer departed, taking with him some of my ship's papers."

Captain Birkeland stated that the remainder of the voyage was without incident.

START IMPROVEMENTS ON EDGE MONT.

Contractor James Ireland has a large force of workmen at work this week on the improvements on Edgemont, Maysville's new addition, recently opened to the public. The first thing that will be done is to lay a six-inch water pipe from the reservoir on Water Works hill to the grounds. After this is done an eight-inch gas main will be run from the gas pipe at the intersection of Third street and the Lexington pike. When these two improvements are installed the residents of the suburb will have all the advantages of the people of this city.

TO HOLD REUNION.

Cards have been received by local comrades announcing a reunion of the Seventieth O. V. V. I., at Seaman, on the N. & W. railroad, on October 21 and 22.

The announcement card is very pretty gotten up, with a border of tiny American flags, and on the reverse side is a picture showing the storming of a fort. It is very realistic and no doubt stirs memories in the breasts of the comrades who took part in the engagement pictured.

SOME MORE APPLES.

Mr. A. Clooney, the Second street jeweler, has on exhibition in his window some giant apples, grown by Wilson Bros., of near Aberdeen. The apples were raised under scientific principles, being sprayed, etc. He also shows some apples of the same tree that were not given any attention and the result speaks for itself. The sprayed apples are from five to ten times as large as the ones which were not sprayed. Every fruit grower should look at the exhibit.

STOCK DIES FROM EATING PARIS GREEN.

Mr. Clinton Bramble, of the Lewisburg neighborhood, had several valuable head of cattle to die Sunday from the effect of eating paris green. The cattle got into the deadly drug and in a few minutes were in their death throes. The loss will amount to several hundred dollars.

TESTING THE VALUE OF THE KINDERGARTEN.

The value of the kindergarten as tested by its results is discussed by Miss A. M. Winchester in an annual review of kindergarten work just issued by the Commissioner of Education.

"For several years investigations have been undertaken in different cities," says the review, "for the purpose of ascertaining the advantage gained by children with kindergarten training over non-kindergarten children. The emphasis in these investigations has been placed usually upon the rate of speed with which the children make the successive grades."

"The fallacy of drawing conclusions from such surveys," says Miss Winchester, "is manifest at once. It is well nigh impossible to gauge the speed correctly, because in the first grade both kindergarten and non-kindergarten children are placed together, and by the rule of uniformity which seems necessary in school systems, the teacher unconsciously standardizes the progress of her class. The laggards are brought up by dint of conscientious work, and the forward ones are held in leash, so that by the time the fifth or sixth grade is reached, whatever special impetus may have resulted from the child's kindergarten training has ceased to be measurable.

"In any event the permanent value of the kindergarten has little if any connection with the number of years required to go through the grades. The kindergarten's concern is with the content of the years rather than with their number; with the fullness of the life of the child rather than with the mere economy of time. Power to think and do, a tendency to assume right attitudes toward life, and ability to work and play happily with one's fellows—these are the results of training based upon the belief in education by development."

An investigation is about to be undertaken by the International Kindergarten Union in this field. Miss Winchester points out, will involve making a study in several different cities of one set of children who entered kindergarten five years ago and another set in the same school who did not attend kindergarten. The records of these children will be examined with reference to their interests, attitudes, spirit toward one another and with reference to their proficiency in school studies. The quality and spirit of the teachers of these children as well as the quality and spirit of the home from which the children come will be taken into consideration.

WOMAN'S BEAUTY NO SECRET.

It all lies in the care she bestows upon herself and in keeping at bay those dread ills peculiar to her sex. The flashing eye, the elastic step and the clear complexion never accompany organic troubles. The distressed expression, lassitude, headaches and mental depression are only the tell-tale symptoms. Women so troubled should take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that simple remedy made from roots and herbs, and restore their health to a normal condition.

AGAINST ROUMANIA.

Bucharest, August 30.—Austrian is massing troops on Serbo-Rumanian frontier. Austria continues to raise difficulties in regard to the export of Rumanian cereals in the hope of imposing unacceptable conditions on Rumania. The state will open large credits for the benefit of agriculture. A German attempt to smuggle dynamite through Rumania has been discovered.

RECORD OF THE PAST

No Stronger Evidence Can Be Had In Maysville

Look well to their record. What they have done many times in years gone by is the best guarantee of future results. Anyone with a bad back; any reader suffering from urinary troubles, from kidney ills, should find comforting words in the following statement.

Mrs. John Burns, Maysville, says: "I was subject to severe spells of backache and kidney trouble. They came on every three or six months and at times I was confined to bed and almost helpless. I used Doan's Kidney Pills and they gave me quick benefit. Since then when I have noticed slight return attacks of backache, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to quickly check the trouble."

OVER SEVEN YEARS LATER Mrs. Burns said: "The statement I gave before praising Doan's Kidney Pills still holds good. I know that this medicine acts as represented."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Burns has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

—IN—

$2,400 Prize Campaign

Starting today and ending next Saturday night, September 4, at 9 o'clock the Contest Manager offers all active candidates a great chance to accumulate thousands of extra votes.

50,000 EXTRA VOTE OFFER

Each and every club of new and old subscriptions amounting to $15 entitles you to 50,000 extra votes in addition to the regular votes issued according to the regular scale. This grand offer gives every candidate an opportunity to secure thousands of Extra votes and thereby make certain of winning. The time for prompt action has arrived and the end of the big race is in sight. Every club of subscriptions secured before September 5 means 50,000 of extra votes. How many clubs will you secure?

Six Days of Unusual Opportunity!

Every candidate should put forth her best effort now as all realize that to take full advantage of this offer is to mean success and one of the big autos. The great contest positively ends at 9 a. m., September 11, and at that time the twenty costly prizes, including two automobiles, will be given to the ladies who do the most effective work. Make this week your biggest and plan to work every day so that you may be numbered among the winners.

GRAND OFFER

STIRS CANDIDATES TO FULLEST
ENDEAVOR IN GREAT $2,400.00
RACE.

Letters, phone calls, telegrams and the spoken word—such were the means candidates used yesterday to express their delight over the liberal and greatest of all special offers of the Daily Bulletin-Public Ledger automobile campaign. Approval was showered upon the campaign office in abundance, and at the same time jaws clicked and the little dimpled chins formed determinedly to make, while this 50,000 offer lasts, the very greatest effort of which they are capable.

All over this part of the state of Kentucky candidates have sprung into action, placed on their mettle by the realization that now is the period, of all times, when results must be obtained in order to be counted a winner at the conclusion of the campaign. The spirit of firm resolve to get everything possible out of each day and let not a single subscription slip away promises to rival the perseverance of Diogenes, the ancient philosopher, in his years-old search for an honest man.

Four days from tomorrow is all the time in which to get 50,000 extra votes on the last club. One week from next Saturday the campaign ends. Verily, time is valuable indeed.

The outside towns are now lining up behind their respective candidates with an eagerness that bids to make the race a close one in many districts. Entire populations are taking an added interest in the young women who represent their towns in this history-making newspaper campaign, and in several instances whole communities have signified their intention of doing all that is possible to help their favorite. No community is going to allow one of its popular and energetic young women to lose out in a race that means so much to her merely for the lack of support. Civic pride is entering as a potent factor. And, as usual, the country district is out for its proportion of the automobiles. In many contests the outside contestants walk away with some of the prizes that their city sisters have set their hearts on, for, to these several weeks, and serious opposition to this program is going to be encountered right here in Maysville, for many of the contestants and their supporters are determined that the outside candidates will not poll a higher vote and intend to make a grand showing this week.

At this time of the campaign rumors are likely to become current that are inspired for the purpose of discouraging some ambitious candidate. Some one will say that Miss So-and-So has this and that may votes, or that a certain candidate can not be beaten, etc. These stories should be taken with a grain of salt. Most likely they emanate from some jealous competitor who hopes by this means to rid herself of some closely-pressing contender. Idle gossip will not win automobiles; undaunted courage and the determination to surmount every obstacle is necessary for victory.

By building a reserve of votes, candidates can fortify themselves against being passed in the lead by some other candidate. While subscriptions, during this offer, should be sent in as they are secured, instead of holding them until the last day, the votes deposited thereon do not need to be deposited until the candidate chooses to do so. It is not until then that they are published.

The standing of all candidates appears elsewhere in today's issue. The last free coupon will be printed Wednesday, September 1, and no coupon from any candidate will be accepted after September 3.

ATTENDING REUNION.

Mr. Sherman Hermlinger and Mr. J. M. Claypool, of Mt. Olivet, passed through here a few days ago to attend the reunion of the Claypool family at Danville, Ill. This promises to be one of the biggest family reunions in the country, Claypools from all over the Union attending.

Mr. Charles E. Murphy, of St. Louis, Mo., is in this city this week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Murphy.

Miss Lyle Simpson left Tuesday for Somerset, where she will be the guest of her sister, Mrs. W. B. Gregg.

GONE UNTIL THE END OF THE SEASON.

On Monday the fans of this city had their last chance to see the Colonels play ball until the post-season series with Portsmouth. The team will leave this morning for Frankfort where they will play the Old Taylors four games, after which they journey to Portsmouth, where they close the season with the Cobblers. All the players but Pitcher Winnie French will make the trip to Frankfort. French will stay in this city and rest up for the hard series with the Portsmouth Cobblers. This series will decide who will win the pennant for the second half of the 1915 season of the Ohio State League and Maysville has the best chance of any team in the race, as she is now at the top of the ladder and has nearly a five-game lead over the nearest contender. With only about nine games to play an even break will give the pennant to the Colonels with a good margin, although Charleston should win all her games.

If we do win the pennant we will probably play a post-season series for the best four out of seven games with the Portsmouth Cobblers, who won the first half of the season pennant. These games will be played at Portsmouth and in this city and promise to be the best ever seen on this diamond. They will probably begin a day after the season closes, a flip of the coin deciding where the opener will be played.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The following prices f. o. b. Detroit, effective Aug. 2, 1915:

Ford Runabout	$390.00
Ford Touring Car	440.00
Ford Town Car	640.00

No speedometer included in this year's equipment, otherwise cars fully equipped.

There can be no assurance given against an advance in these prices at any time. We guarantee, however, that there will be no reduction in these prices prior to Aug. 1, 1916.

Profit-Sharing With Retail Buyers

On August 1, 1914 we made the announcement that if we could make and sell at retail 300,000 Ford cars between August 1, 1914 and August 1, 1915 we would share profits with the retail purchasers, to the extent of from $40 to $60 on each car. We have sold over 300,000 Ford cars in the time specified, and profit-sharing checks of $50 each will be distributed as rapidly as possible after August 15, 1915. Retail purchasers who have not yet mailed us their profit-sharing coupons, properly endorsed, should do so without delay.

Our plan to profit-share with retail purchasers of Ford cars during 1914-15 has been most successful. We thoroughly believe in it, but, realizing the uncertainty of conditions generally makes it advisable to defer any announcement of future profit-sharing until a later date.

We are however, confident of our inability to reduce costs for several months, and therefore can offer no profit-sharing for cars.
